

Part I: Green Transition and Renewable Energy

09:30 – 09:40	Welcome by Copenhagen Business School Moderator: Signe Iversen, DR Environmental Journalist
09:40 – 09:50	Danish development priorities for supporting a Green Transition Speaker: Ole Thonke, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
09:50 – 10:05	Keynote I: Challenges and opportunities along the value chain: from critical mineral mining to wind energy production Speaker: David Purkey, Stockholm Environment Institute
10:05 – 10:20	Keynote II: Protecting Human Rights in Wind and Solar Sectors Speaker: Caroline Avan, Business & Human Rights Resource Centre
10:20 – 10:35	Case: Wind is the breadth that sustains our life - voices from Colombia Speaker: Dulcy Maria Cotes Van-grieken, Fuerza de Mujeres Wayuu
10:35 – 10:45	BREAK
10:45 – 12:00	PANEL I: How can the private sector spearhead a fair and inclusive transition? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Elin Wrzoncki, Danish Institute of Human Rights</li><li>• Kristian Heydenreich, Vestas</li><li>• Marie Bredkjær Thomsen, Danish Energy Agency</li><li>• Jacobo Ramirez, Copenhagen Business School</li><li>• José Vega Araújo, Stockholm Environment Institute</li><li>• Thomas Hougard, Danish Investment Fund for Developing Countries</li></ul>
12:00 – 12:45	LUNCH

A Green and Just Transition for All

Can the private sector deliver?

A Detailed Programme

Register

Part II: Critical Minerals Mining

12:45 – 13:00	Keynote III: Addressing the human rights paradox in mining of critical minerals Speaker: Karin Buhmann, Copenhagen Business School
13:00 – 13:15	Keynote IV: Rush for critical minerals at the expense for local communities Speaker: Oscar Rothstein, Danwatch
13:15 – 13:30	Case: Critical rundown of the Lithium Mining Industry in Zimbabwe Speaker: Obert Bore, Zimbabwe Environmental Law Association
13:30 – 14:45	PANEL II: Responsible mining through stakeholder engagement and critical dialogue? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Rasmus Bessing, PFA Pension</li><li>• Valentina Lomanto, PhD Lund University</li><li>• Maarten Hietland, Independent Researcher on Multinational Corporations</li><li>• Anabella Rosemberg, Climate Action Network</li><li>• Palle Ellemann, Velliv Pension</li><li>• Quynh Le Tran, Amnesty International</li></ul>
14:45 – 14:55	Concluding remarks - Lars Koch, General Secretary, Oxfam DK
15:00 – 16:00	Reception and networking